

Boxer Youth Leadership Programme

Terms and Conditions

1. This offer is exclusive to Boxer stores and is open to both South African & Swaziland citizens;
2. Boxer reserves the right to terminate this competition at any time at their sole discretion and further to withdraw in the event of any unforeseen circumstances or factors outside of their control;
3. The valid dates for this competition are 10th January to 14th February; however, essays can be submitted to us directly before the cutoff date;
4. This competition is only valid to school learners in grades 9, 10 & 11 (any submissions from learners not in these grades will be automatically disqualified);
5. Learners are to complete an entry form in full either by collecting directly at their nearest Boxer store, online at www.boxer.co.za/page/competitions or emailing directly to digital@boxer.co.za with all their contact details included as well as their parents & schools details – failure to do so will result in disqualification;
6. Learners must write a 500 word essay on the topic: "Within your community, what are some of the challenges your community faces. As a leader how would you go about fixing these challenges?"
7. All essays and accompanying entry forms will be checked, details captured and essays read with strict criteria followed to ensure all are graded fairly;
8. 50 lucky learners will be selected based on the highest scores received across SA & Swaziland;
9. The prize, which consists of a 6 day all expenses paid adventure will take place in KZN, on dates which are still to be confirmed due to COVID and school holidays;
10. The prize is nontransferable and cannot be exchanged in lieu of cash – should a selected learner be unable to attend, they will forfeit their prize and another learner will be chosen in their place to attend;
11. Winners will be announced by beginning of March and learners parents & schools will be notified and permission granted for learners to travel to KZN either by taxi, bus, car or plane depending on their location;
12. By entering this competition and accepting the prize; learners hereby indemnify Boxer to claim for any loss, theft or injury that will occur during the programme;
13. By taking part in this competition, learners agree to abide by these terms and conditions.
